Mayor Shawn Larsen elected Second Vice President of the Association of Idaho Cities

BOISE – Members of the Association of Idaho Cities elected Mayor Shawn Larsen of Rexburg as their new Second Vice President for 2009-2010. Larsen was elected and took the oath of office on June 19 during the 62nd AIC Annual Conference in Boise where over 350 delegates representing cities from around the state were in attendance.

The Association of Idaho Cities was formed in 1947 and is a nonpartisan, nonprofit corporation organized to serve Idaho's 200 incorporated cities. AIC influences policies and provides education, training and technical assistance to strengthen the ability of city elected officials and staff to serve their communities.

Also elected at the association's annual conference in Boise were the following officers and District Directors representing the geographic areas of the state: President: Mayor Tom Dale, Nampa; First Vice President: Mayor Jon Anderson, Burley; Third Vice President: Councilmember John Currin, Lewiston; District Director 1: Coeur d'Alene Mayor Sandi Bloem; District Director 2: Grangeville Councilmember Mike Peterson and Moscow Mayor Nancy Chaney; District Director 3: Payette Mayor Doug Henderson; District Director 3A: Boise Councilmember Elaine Clegg; District Director 4: Fairfield Mayor David Hanks; District Director 5: Soda Springs Councilmember Randy Prescott; and District Director 6: Rexburg Councilmember Christopher Mann.
